MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Structural Change Paper

[] response to my comments on this paper on Structural Change is a first-class piece of work. I agree with your plan for disseminating it informally to a couple dozen selected people. I would hope to get comment and reaction from some of them and then consider whether we should, after seeing what other people have to say, make whatever modifications might be indicated and give it a wider circulation. Some of the implications of Pat's thinking are so important that I am not too concerned about offending some people, although I think we should ensure that we are on solid ground and give no more offense than necessary to properly alert their thinking it may be creeping up on them.
